A GOOD AMENDMENT.

Representative Springer, of Illinois, has introduced a resolution proposing a Constitutional amendment relative to the election of President and Vice President and members of Congress. It fixes the term of the President and Vice President at six years, and makes the President ineligible to election for the next succeeding term, abolishes the Electoral College and provides for a direct vote for President. Every State shall be entitled to as many votes as it has Senators and Representatives in Congress. The term of members of Congress is fixed at three years, and each session shall begin on the first Wednesday of January. In counting the votes cast for President in joint convention, each Senator and Member shall have one vote.

A spirited debate occurred in the Senate yesterday between Pendleton, Sherman and Allison. Allison reminded Pendleton the record on the River and Harbor bill showed that 23 Democrats voted for it and only three against it, while only 16 Republican Senators voted for it and 14 against it. Yet an attempt was now made to have it appear that the Republicans were alone responsible for the appropriations forced upon them by Democratic voters.

The marriage of Miss Bessie Grattan, a young society lady of San Francisco, and Mr. Ernest Diehlman, late Minister to Columbia, is set for an early day, the wedding to take place at St. John's Church, Washington, and a reception to follow at the residence of Senator and Mrs. Jones, on Capitol Hill, where Mrs. Grattan and her daughter are now stopping as guests.

There is a great dearth of material of which to make an interesting newspaper, in view of which Morgan has been dug up from his grave, and voked out from under the falls, and the newspapers are variously engaged in damning Weed and Morgan, alternately. The controversy has been brought up by Weed's anti-mortem statement, made some two months ago, the truthfulness of which is denied.

An extraordinary demand for dimes is said to have sprung up, and the supply at the Philadelphia Mint is exhausted, and the vaults of the Treasury Department have been drained. An order has been sent to Philadelphia for the coining of $400,000 worth, but it is believed that this will not satisfy the demand, which is thought to be caused by the manufacture of cheap jewelry.

The Philadelphia News man is thankful because Oscar Wilde has become honest enough to admit that on a cold Wintry morning a glass of ice water and a sunflower are not quite as good as coffee, buckwheat cakes and sausage.

The opposition to the production of "The Passion Play" on the part of the clergy, press and prominent citizens has been so general that doubts have been expressed as to its production in New York City.

Governor Cleveland, of New York, following Pattison's example, has declined a proffered escort upon the occasion of his inauguration. He says he wants as little ceremony as possible.

It is fashionable in London to wear the head of a monkey on a bonnet. It is a French idea. Do not follow the fashion. Let the monkey walk along-side of you.

Oscar Wilde thinks this country has produced more rubbish in the furniture line than all other lands in the world taken together. Oscar isn't well.

The Philadelphia News wants the shooting of apples off women's heads on the stage stopped instantly. The wrong party gets killed.

It is true that the Democrats did a great act this year but the outlook is unfavorable to their responding to an encore in 1894.

The Virginia Enterprise is opposed to a Constitutional Convention. Nearly every paper in the State has fallen into line.

The county does not particularly need the new $800 lot. Times are dull, and $800 will run the hospital three months.

Senator Edmunds has written a letter in which he declines to be a candidate for the Presidency in 1894.

Boston has just elected a Democratic Mayor by 2,000 majority. What is the Hub coming to?

"The revival of the Whig party" is among the predicted possibilities of the near future.

To The Public.

One the 1st of January, 1893, I propose to place my business on a cash basis which will enable me to supply those who will give me their patronage with the best quality of goods at much lower prices than they have heretofore been paying. It is a plain fact that the credit system as carried on by business houses, compels those who do pay to make up the losses occasioned by those who do not fulfill their obligations. I am aware that Cash vs. Credit has been a theme of discussion these many years, but those who pay their bills know that the theory is perfect. And I shall offer goods at such prices that those who shall trade with me will never regret that they assisted in reducing the theory to practice. The new plan will enable me to increase my large and varied stock. I will transact my business strictly in accordance with the cash system; pricing goods with regard to quality. I will handle none that are of a doubtful quality. Please call or send for a price list which will be out January 1, 1893. Respectfully,
JERRY SCHOOLING.

A Slaughter of Railroad Workmen.

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 12.—A bridge in process of construction on the Sunset extension of the Southern Pacific, 230 miles west of this place, fell at 10 o'clock this morning. Seven men were killed and eleven wounded. The bridge was 250 feet long, 75 feet high, and was the connecting link between the Southern Pacific and the Sunset road. It will delay connection between the two roads for about a month. One hundred men were on the bridge at the time of the accident. Five of the men injured will die.

Washington Territory.

The assessed value of all taxable property in the Territory of Washington this year is $32,566,897. Last year it was $25,786,415, this year's increase being $6,780,482, or more than 25 per cent. The Territorial tax of 2 1/2 mills on the dollar will yield a revenue of $81,416, against $67,351 last year with a 3 mill tax. The Territory is out of debt, with money in the treasury.

Judge Sewell was beaten by the votes of the laborers on the Carson & Colorado Railroad. These men had no interest in the welfare of the district in which they were temporarily employed, and no doubt, voted as they were told. The successor of Judge Sewell is M. A. Murphy, the present Attorney-General. The corporations wanted a different man from Judge Sewell on the bench of the Third District. Mr. Murphy will never be beaten by railroad votes.—[Virginia Chronicle.]

Furnace Canyon is the name of the precinct where the large force of men employed by the C. & C. voted. Murphy received 52 and Sewell 44, a difference of 8. Adams, Cassidy, Richards, Ernst and McCarthy received majorities, while on Sept. of Public Instruction and Attorney-General the vote was a tie. Will the Chronicle try again?

Poverty and Distress.

That poverty which produces the greatest distress is not of the purse but of the blood. Deprived of its richness it becomes scant and watery, a condition termed anemia in medical writings. Given this condition, and scrofulous swellings and sores, general and nervous debility, loss of flesh and appetite, weak lungs, throat disease, spitting of blood and consumption, are among the common results. If you are a sufferer from thin, poor blood employ Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," which enriches the blood and cures these grave affections. Is more nutritive than cod liver oil, and is harmless in any condition of the system, yet powerful to cure. By druggists.

Journal's Holiday Book.

The JOURNAL's illustrated Annual for 1893 will be distributed to subscribers about the 20th. Every subscriber of the Daily and Weekly JOURNAL will certainly appreciate it. It will have fifty illustrations on wood, chiefly by Darley, Moran, Schell, Whitney, Woodward and other celebrated American artists. The cover is an exquisite piece of the Aldine's best. The contents of the Annual are as instructive as interesting. The almanac portion is complete in every way. The book is the best ever yet gotten out for the purpose for which it is intended.

Fine Job Work.

The JOURNAL job office has just received a large and fine stock of paper, cards, inks, etc., for job printing and is prepared to take orders for every description of work in the printing line. Only skilled workmen are employed in the job room and no inferior work is allowed to leave the office. Compensating prices are charged for every job and satisfaction guaranteed. Call and examine our specimens and leave your orders.

Now is Your Chance.

Miss M. A. Harney is selling out her entire stock at reduced rates. She accordingly invites all the ladies to come and examine her stock and assures them they may obtain all millinery and fancy goods at a great bargain, as she must dispose of her present stock.

PRIZE BOOKS FOR SUBSCRIBERS.

The Weekly Journal's Clubbing Arrangement with the Cincinnati Commercial.

Having made arrangements to club the WEEKLY JOURNAL with the Cincinnati Weekly Commercial, we announce that we will furnish the WEEKLY JOURNAL and the Cincinnati Weekly Commercial, a large 8-page, 56-column family newspaper, printed from large, clear new type, and furnishes more reading matter for the money than any other newspaper in the county, the issue of each week containing over twenty-two square feet of printed matter; and is not surpassed for news, business reports, literary and select reading, one year for $3 50, and will give as a free prize to each yearly subscriber under this clubbing arrangement any one book he may select from the following famous works—postage paid and free of all cost—the books being unabridged, beautifully printed on good paper in paper covers: Tompkinson's Poems; The Arabian Nights; The Narrative of the Jeannette Arctic Expedition, by Lieut. Danenhower; The Mill on the Floss, by George Eliot; Wood's Natural History for Boys, (300 illustrations); East Lynne, by Mrs. Henry Wood; Vennor's Almanac for 1893; The Swiss Family Robinson; A Treatise on the Horse and His Diseases, by Dr. B. J. Kendall; The Woman in White, by Wilkie Collins; History of the Kingdom of Ireland; Waverley, by Sir Walter Scott; A Brave Lady, by Miss Mulock; The Bible Dictionary; Lady Audley's Secret, by Miss Braddon.

It will be noticed that our selection of prizes covers an extraordinary range and variety of the brightest and best books.

Free specimen copies of the Cincinnati Weekly Commercial may be obtained by addressing M. Halstead & Co., Proprietors Commercial, Cincinnati, Ohio, and free specimen copies of the JOURNAL can be obtained by addressing C. C. Powling, Proprietor JOURNAL, Reno, Nevada.

Send postal card asking for specimen copies.

A COUGH, COLD OR SORE THROAT should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years Brown's Bronchial Troches have been recommended by physicians, and always gives perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25c. a box everywhere.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

Mrs. W. R. Chamberlain has gone on a visit to the Bay.

U. S. Court at Carson Saturday. Juries should bear it in mind.

The Washoe assert that this delightful weather will last all winter.

W. A. Morrison is in from Bidwell and reports that section lively and prosperous.

The Commissioners have no right under the law to purchase anybody's real estate.

Gen. Connor came in from Eureka last night on his way to Virginia to buy some mining machinery.

If the Commissioners desire any more property at the Smith figures they can easily secure a "corner" on the real estate market.

Frank Bell returned from Eureka last evening. He reports having successfully established a Telephone Exchange at that place.

Nashy's bazaar is constantly crowded with customers making selections for holiday gifts. He has an almost endless variety of goods suitable to the holidays.

Moss agate and gold quartz sleeve buttons, elegantly finished. For sale for one-third their value at Uncle Harris', 221 Kearny street, between Bush and Sutter.

The Reno Glove Factory, opposite the Odd Fellows' building, keeps a complete assortment of gloves. Full gauntlet are made to order for $1 50, and button top for $1 25. See advertisement.

The Smith bill has not reached Auditor Williams. Title to the property must first pass before the Commissioners can allow the bill. The JOURNAL suggests that the entire matter lay over for action by the new Board of Commissioners.

Steamboat Springs

The Carson Tribune truly says "there is no place in Nevada in the shape of a sanitarium that compares with the old Steamboat Springs. You can ride down on the cars in the evening, take a sweat bath before retiring to bed, get up at 6 o'clock in the morning and without going into the cold air pass from your dormitory to the bath, return and rub and dress yourself, get a cup of coffee and arrive at Carson in time for business. C. F. Moeller is a host what is a host, and nothing he can do to make his guests comfortable is left undone. A first-class table, good cigars and cider awaits the dirt-stricken caller, and if he has any rheumatism lingering in his bones that steam will go for it. A trip once a week, is inexpensive to the poorest individual, and the result of a visit is an increased appetite and a thorough cleansing of the skin."

San Francisco Meat Market.

Fresh meats continue in fair demand. Good beef has been rather scarce for a few days, and top prices have generally been obtained. Fat mutton and lamb are in moderate supply. Hogs are arriving more freely, while the quality is reported to be improving. Following are rates for whole carcasses from slaughterers to dealers:

Beef—Prime, 8½¢; medium grades, 7½¢; inferior, 5½¢; 6¢ lb.
Veal—Large calves, 7½¢; 8¢; small ones, 9¢ to 10¢ lb.
Mutton—Wethers are quotable at 4½¢ and ewes at 4¼¢; 4½¢ lb, according to quality.
Lamb—Quotable at 6½¢ to 7¢ lb.
Pork—Live hogs, 6½¢ to 7¢ for hard and 5½¢ to 6½¢ for soft; dressed do, 3¼¢ to 10¢ lb for hard grain hogs.

No Pasteboard in State Prison Shoes.

There is an article going the rounds in the Nevada press to the effect that a convict was put into the State Prison for dishonesty and then required to put pasteboard in the soles of cheap shoes in the place of leather. The tendency of this article, the Carson Index thinks, is to injure the sale of the prison goods, and doubtless was started only as a joke. There is no instance of such an occurrence, says Warden Garrard, under his administration.

"On the Force."

Police business was somewhat lively yesterday. A Chinaman was arrested for breaking into Mr. O'Hara's house and stealing several valuable articles. Miss Murphy was arrested for disturbing the peace, and two young fellows were taken in for vagrancy.

Fish.

T. J. Tennant, Deputy Fish Commissioner, came down from Carson with several cans of perch, catfish and white bass, which he is taking out East, to stock the waters of Elko, Nye, White Pine and Lincoln counties.

What is Going on in Society Circles.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—Perhaps you would like to know what is going on in a social way, and what is being discussed in the mystic circles that are not penetrated by your regular reporter.

Every possible hour of this, the holiday season, seems, by common consent, devoted to pleasure and amusement. To be sure there is a great deal of real work done, but a large proportion is designed to result in happiness and merriment for many. Labor that is voluntarily undertaken for those in whom we are interested is not burdensome.

The good people of the various churches in town are working hard to secure a merry Christmas time for the numerous Sabbath School children. Several entertainments have been given during the past few weeks to procure money for old Santa Claus' pocket book, and two or three more are already in preparation. This way of raising money seems to be decidedly popular in Reno. It is not strange, considering the facts that our local talent is of a high order, comparing favorably with any town upon the coast. Our rushing, energetic young folks are not only willing, but glad to have something to do that will be at the same time improving and amusing; and our people are warmly interested in literary and musical affairs; are most generous when called upon to assist any charitable cause.

The programme provided by the ladies of the Methodist Church for this evening, and also Friday evening, will, no doubt, draw a large audience, notwithstanding that many enjoyed, till a late hour, the amusements of last evening, namely: the musical rehearsal at the Seminary and the anniversary reception at a private residence.

The members of the Congregational Sunday School give their monthly concert next Sabbath evening. The little ones will be out in force and will, no doubt, be well received.

The members of the literary club were so successful with their first venture that they think of preparing another and finer entertainment, to be given some time in January. A nice drama at the Theatre will probably be decided upon.

The mothers, sisters, cousins, aunts, etc., of Reno households, are putting in every spare moment in the construction of Christmas gifts. One little lady had, the other day, completed a number of dainty presents. There was a reticule (an article that is so useful for carrying work and other odds and ends) made of black satin, beautifully embroidered with a bunch of geranium leaves and flowers; several silk handkerchiefs with vines and letters delicately traced; Christmas cards painted with flowers and mottoes, etc. Another's treasures included some beautiful abalone shells with tiny landscapes painted in oils upon them; a shopping bag made of cream colored macramé cord, and pale blue satin; an exquisite chair cover, a combination of plush and satin, embroidered in the fascinating Kensington stitch. The young ladies are occupied in such needlework as hat bands, handkerchief and collar boxes, wristlets, neckties, etc., doubtless intended as presents for their own brothers and—the brothers of their dear girl friends, but this interesting subject had best be dropped here. The jolly Xmas time will be followed by the celebration of glorious first day of the year. Already faint echoes are heard of "day receptions" and "ball," and "What are you going to wear?" H. A.

Acceptable Gifts for the Holidays, for Gentlemen.

An intelligent lady, who has the good of her husband or brother at heart does everything possible to render home attractive and comfortable; every young lady wishes to please her lover. What can render home more comfortable to that husband or brother, what makes the lover more frequently dwell upon his lady's kindness than a fragrant fine cigar or cigarette, held in an elegant holder of pure meerschaum or amber, or a smoke of excellent tobacco wafted in the bowl of a beautiful pipe. Remember this when pondering over your intended Christmas or holiday gift, and remember that E. Meyers' is the largest and finest, and his prices extremely reasonable. He also keeps a fine assortment of tortoise shell and ivory snuff boxes, and an immense line of all kinds of smokers' articles.

Washoe's Rebate.

State Controller Hallock has adjusted Treasurer Boyd's account for the half year ending Dec. 11th, and has allowed the following percentages:

Treasurer's commissions... $1,415 39
Auditor's " " " " " 336 00
Assessor's " " " " " 630 40

On the June settlement the Treasurer was entitled to $53 02, so that of the salary of $2,060 paid him, the State paid $1,468 41 of it, and Washoe county but $591 59.

Turkey Shooting.

There will be turkey shooting at the Reno Guard range at 11 A. M. sharp, Sunday Dec. 17th. Ab. Smith will be Master of Ceremonies.

YOUNG MEN.

WHO may be suffering from the effects of youthful follies or indiscretions, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. Dr. Spinney will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty, who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits aropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, the color will be a thin milky hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration to the genito-urinary organs.

Office hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 till 1 A. M. Consultation free. Thorough examination and advice, $5.
